

M2N MEDIA

Converting meets Packaging

at FACHPACK 2027, September 21–23, 2027

At FACHPACK 2027, NürnbergMesse and M2N Media will once again jointly present the “Converting meets Packaging” pavilion. Be part of it!

Following its successful debut, the pavilion will return for its second edition in 2027, bringing together companies specializing in finishing, winding technology, coating, rolling, printing, laminating, and adhesive technology.

The “Converting meets Packaging” pavilion provides a central platform for innovation, knowledge exchange, and new business opportunities at the intersection of converting and packaging.

Take this opportunity to showcase your company to FACHPACK’s international trade audience.
